NOW IS THE TIME TO SUBSCRIBE. OUR TERMS. There is a great deal of talk among our cotemporaries about the "great rise in the $5. Three copies one year, $6. Four copies agree with our friends as to the last proposition. It is true that paper has gone up frightfully—fifty per cent. at least, and is "still on its way up." But what of that? Publishers have for years had a good time with low priced paper. Eight copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $15.

Eleven copies one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, $20.

And the only magazine that can be introduced into the above clubs in place of the Lady's Book is Arthur's Home Magazine.

All our old contributors have been re-engaged for the ensuing year; our corps will be so large, and will embrace such a variety of eminent talent, that every department of literature will receive the particular attention of some one competent to do it ample and special justice. In fact, our contributors will send us from week to week much more matter than we can possibly use, so that we shall always have a fresh and superabundant supply from which to select years. superabundant supply from which to select THE VERY REST.

The LEGGER's great success is owing to the fact that we spare no expense in getting up the REST PARILY PAPER—a paper of high moral tone. The exalted reputation of its contributors, the practical and invariably pure and healthy character of all its articles, the care which is taken that not even one offensive word shall appear in its columns, and the superiority of its Tales and Sketches, have gained for the NEW YORK LEPTORE a position that no literary paper has ever before reached. erabundant supply from which to select THE
